

Junk da Funk

Junk started life in June 2006 at Rain Nightclub and hasn't looked back since... It has brought some of the worlds most respected house DJ's to small-town Loughborough and has managed to create a brand that is destined for nationwide domination. 2007 has brought Junk to Saturday nights and to a new venue, the recently refurbished Rapture bringing style and panache to a legion of midlands clubbers every other week. 69 caught up with Junk promoter, DJ and general gad about town, Jono Allen.
